Lesson Expectations

Students are expected to...

- Come to lessons on time, prepared, and with all necessary materials (instrument, music, pencil)
- Practice in preparation for each lesson
- Form educated musical opinions about the music assigned
- Be vocal about their own goals and needs
- Purchase their own method books and materials

As a teacher, I will...

- Be on time and fully prepared for all lessons
 - Be prompt and professional in all communications
 - Teach to each student's individual ability level and musical goals
 - Set personalized high and achievable expectations for all students
 - Have a genuine interest in each student as a musician and individual

Scheduling/Missed Lessons

- Lessons reoccur weekly – if your lesson time is Tuesday at 8pm, your lesson is always Tuesday at 8pm unless we reschedule.
 - All rescheduling or cancellation requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance of originally scheduled lesson time.
 - When notified at least 24 hours in advance, missed lessons can be made up at a mutually convenient time or credited towards a later lesson.
 - Except in cases of sickness or family emergency, students who miss a lesson with less than 24-hour notice will still be charged for the lesson. Lessons missed with less than 24-hour notice will not be made up, and payment for the lesson will not be credited towards a future lesson or refunded at the end of the session.
